

Jazz London Radio is currently looking for a Marketing Assistant on a volunteer basis with the possibility of earning commission.

Jazz London Radio is London's premiere jazz internet radio station which has been broadcasting since June 2014. The station is expanding its audience with a range of programmes to cater for different tastes of jazz fans and fans of music in general: We are looking to attract advertising for both the radio station and the website. We are looking for someone with good communication skills, energy, and with knowledge of affiliate marketing and other marketing techniques.

1: With the Director help to compile a list of organisations / music venues / companies to engage in idea of advertising with Jazz London Radio.

2. Help drive forward Twitter and Facebook campaigns and competitions

3. Make the most of the Affiliate Marketing opportunities Jazz London Radio currently has

Please get in touch with Laurie Burnette at official@jazzlondonradio.com with your CV and why you would be good for this volunteer role.

In return Jazz London Radio will provide free tickets to events and commission on any deals.